

WANT A JOB?

If you choose to join us and get accepted, this job will run from 9-6 and you can choose if you would like to work overtime if you wish. You get an hour and a half for your lunch break at around 12:30, you can choose to either work from home or come into our office during these hours. During these work hours you will have a variety of tasks to do for this company. Some of these tasks include managing emails from authors that would like our company to review and edit their work, re-editing the books I review and edit myself, and managing what authors books we decide to edit.
